VOLUNTEERING ACT TO HOST THE 16TH NATIONAL VOLUNTEERING CONFERENCE

As over 400 delegates gathered for the Welcome Reception of the 15th National Volunteering Conference in Adelaide, CEO of Volunteering ACT, Maureen Cane announced that Volunteering ACT will be hosting the next National Volunteering Conference, in collaboration with Volunteering Australia in Canberra.

"We are delighted that the next National Volunteering Conference will be coming to Canberra. These conferences are so important to advancing the volunteering sector. We have such a strong culture of giving in the ACT and are looking forward to sharing that with the rest of Australia" said Maureen Cane, CEO of Volunteering ACT.

The conference will be coming to Canberra with the support of Volunteering Australia's national partner Beyond Bank Australia as the conference partner.
